$6.1 Million Grant to Support Recruitment and Retention of Memphis Police Officers

Three weeks ago the Memphis Mayor Jim Strickland announced at a press conference, along with Crime Commission President Bill Gibbons and Shelby County District Attorney and Operation: Safe Community Chairman Amy Weirich, a $6.1 million grant to support recruitment and retention of Memphis police officers. The grant funds received by the Crime Commission were requested by Mayor Strickland from various individuals and entities throughout the community. The funds are earmarked for use by the City of Memphis for programs geared toward recruiting and retaining Memphis police officers. The receipt of the grant funds and its purpose was unanimously approved by the Memphis City Council. This opportunity supports the goal of the Operation: Safe Community Crime Plan 2017-2021 to resolve shortages in law enforcement staffing. The Crime Commission is pleased to be a part of this effort.
